

Danny duckling nest collage

Collect leaves and sticks in your local park, take them home and let them dry. Colour in or paint Danny and then glue the dried leaves and sticks on to make a real nest.

Danny is a cheeky duckling who loves to explore the lake and park where they live in MK. But sometimes people drop their rubbish on the ground and in the the water which can hurt Danny.

Always put your rubbish in the bin or take it home