Special Needs Teaching Assistant with Forest School/Outdoor Learning Potential

£24,294 FTE (Pro rata 32.5hrs per week – term time plus 5 inset days)
£18,733 Actual Salary

Are you a dedicated and enthusiastic Teaching Assistant who thrives in a supportive environment? Do you have a passion for helping children learn and grow, and perhaps a hidden love for the outdoors? If so, we want to hear from you!

About Us

New Bradwell School Department is a vibrant school dedicated to supporting children with autism. Our small department of 24 students allows for personalised learning and a nurturing environment. We are seeking a dedicated and enthusiastic Teaching Assistant (TA) to join our team.

About the Role

- You will work alongside teachers to provide individual and group support to students across the autistic spectrum.
- You will assist with the delivery of engaging and differentiated lessons, tailored to individual needs and learning styles.
- You will play a key role in creating a positive and inclusive learning environment for all students.
- This role offers the exciting potential to develop your skills in forest school and outdoor learning, working alongside a lead to deliver enriching experiences in nature.

We are looking for someone who:

- Has a genuine passion for working with children with autism.
- Patience, empathy, and a positive and nurturing approach.
- The ability to build rapport with students, parents, and colleagues.
- A strong understanding of SEN and relevant teaching strategies.
- A commitment to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children.

- Possesses excellent communication and interpersonal skills.
- Is a creative and resourceful individual with the ability to develop engaging learning activities.
- Has a positive and patient approach with a commitment to inclusion.
- Ideally, has a strong interest in, or experience with, forest school and/or outdoor learning (desirable but not essential).

What We Offer:

- The opportunity to make a real difference in the lives of children with autism.
- A supportive and collaborative working environment.
- Ongoing training and development opportunities, including potential forest school training (subject to qualifications).
- Competitive salary and benefits package.
