

Excavation of a later Bronze Age Wheel at Must Farm © CAU

MK Archaeology Day

Saturday 2nd November

Central Library, Silbury Blvd, Milton Keynes MK9 3HL

Afternoon: Talks in the Event Space

1:30pm: Community Archaeology on Bury Field Common, Newport Pagnell – Adrian Scruby, Cotswold Archaeology

1:50pm: Uncovering an Iron Age and early Roman settlement at Milton Keynes East – Judy Mlynarska, Pre-Construct Archaeology

2:40pm: Excavations in Great Linford & Stantonbury – Doug Stuckey, Bucks Archaeological Society AAG

3.00pm: The Must Farm settlement: Uncovering Bronze Age life – Chris Wakefield, Cambridge Archaeological Unit (CAU)

For more information email:
archaeology@milton-keynes.gov.uk

Library Foyer & Events Space from 10am

Children & Young People's Activity (Ages 8+): Hands on Techniques in Archaeology hosted by Cotswold Archaeology (10am to 3pm), just drop in

Displays & Activities from Milton Keynes Heritage Association, BAS Active Archaeology Group, UNAS & local Metal Detectorists plus Archaeology & History book stall

The event is FREE and open to ALL