About the Role:

The positive impact you can have on a young person's life is likely to be the reason you became an educator. At The Woodlands School, that impact will be greater than you could have imagined. If you share our ethos and values and believe 'being unique should be celebrated' and want to achieve the best possible outcomes for our students, then we are the school for you.

The Woodlands School is an all age (Reception to Year 14) special school for students with Autism Spectrum Disorder or Social Communication Difficulties with associated learning difficulties, operating across 3 Campuses in Milton Keynes, in September we opened our 3rd Campus in Galley Hill.

All students alongside their Autism have moderate to severe learning difficulties, therefore the post would be suitable for teachers with Primary experience.

We are looking for a teacher to join our Galley Hill team in Stony Stratford (KS2-KS5) as we move to full capacity of 6 classes. The students that attend Galley Hill have high sensory needs, limited communication and difficulties with emotional regulation. All the students that attend Galley Hill present with behaviours that challenge regularly.

Key to the role will be learning what engages each student, how they learn and how they are motivated, channelling these factors into how you teach each subject, so that every student gets the most out of every day. You will inspire your students to enjoy a range of subjects, bringing each lesson to life, engaging them in a love of learning.

We are looking for an outstanding teacher, who is dedicated to the welfare, safeguarding and achievement of every child; who wants to make a difference and knows the pathway that will allow students to do so.

If you have not worked in SEN before, but are enthusiastic and motivated to make the move, we will give you additional training and provide support. If you would like to join an enthusiastic, friendly and hardworking team then we look forward to receiving your application.
